TEN DEMOCRATS FOR CONGRESS

Every District in The State Redeemed.

Doughton Wins Over Cowles In Eighth By Over One Thousand, While Guder's Majority Over Grant In Tenth Is Estimated At From Five Hundred To One Thousand—Great Gains Throughout Entire State.

The latest returns from Tuesday's election show that the three Congressional districts in the State which have been Republican have been solidly Democratic. Major Stedman has a majority of 3,400 in the Fifth, Doughton has a majority of 1,000 over Cowles in the Eighth, while in the Tenth Guder's majority over Grant is estimated at from 500 to 1,000. It is believed that his majority will be nearer the latter figure. This gives North Carolina a solid Democratic representation in Congress.

Returns from all parts of the State show remarkable Democratic gains over two years ago. The Democratic status in the legislature is materially increased. Several counties that have been solidly Republican heretofore have elected Democratic representatives. State Chairman Eller states that he believed the majority in the state will be between 45,000 and 50,000.

In Other States.
In Virginia Saunders, Democrat, is re-elected Congressman from the Fifth district, while Stuart, Democrat, is elected in the Ninth district. This district has been strongly Republican heretofore.

In Ohio a Democratic governor and legislature is elected, assuring a Democratic United States Senator in lieu of a Republican.

In Indiana a Democratic governor and legislature is elected, insuring the election of Kern as United States Senator.

In Nebraska the election of a Democratic governor is still in doubt, but Hitchcock, Democrat, is elected to United States Senate.

New Jersey Democratic.
A gentleman in this city received a telegram last night from a very prominent Republican in New Jersey who stated that the Democrats had swept everything, legislature included, which means a gain of a United States Senator from New Jersey for the Democratic party.

A SHREWD ROGUE CAUGHT AT LAST

Henry Jennings In Jail on Larceny Charge—Betrayed by His Sweetheart When He Jilted Her—Stole Policeman's Billy.

As a result of a jilt he gave his sweetheart a few nights ago Henry Jennings, colored, is in the calaboose awaiting trial this morning on the charge of larceny. Jennings appears to have stole a little of everything from a policeman's billy up. That he is a professional goes without saying and it should be mentioned that the game he worked here was a slick one.

Some weeks ago he was employed by Mowery & Poole, who are especially equipped to move people. Henry would be sent out to move the belongings of a family and it usually turned out that certain articles were lost in transporting the loads of furniture and other belongings. Of course, the firm had to make good for the supposedly lost articles and several dollars were paid out by them. Jennings was too shrewd to work his game too much so he quit his job and secured one with the Patterson Company as driver. This firm also missed a number of articles during the time Jennings was in their employ.

A few nights ago Jennings and his girl had a misunderstanding and she gave him to understand that she was going to tell of his stealing. True to her word she let out a hint and the police began working up evidence. Going to the place where Jennings lived the officers found a number of articles such as blankets, a suit, etc. Also a billy that Jennings had told about stealing from a Roanoke policeman. However, Jennings could not be located.

Mr. Mowery heard about the affair and joined in the chase. He learned that Jennings had gone towards Brown Summit yesterday morning, stating that he was going to take 36 for the north. Accompanied by an officer Mr. Mowery went to Brown Summit and pointed the fugitive out and he was taken into custody and brought back to the city to stand trial.

GETTING READY TO ROOT FOR HIGH SCHOOL SATURDAY

High School Rooters' Club Was Organized Yesterday.

The enthusiastic students of the Greensboro High School yesterday afternoon in a rousing meeting organized the High School Rooters' Club. Miss Myrtle Preyer was elected as chief rooter and she led the members through all the High School yells and cheers, new and old.

The occasion of the organization was the coming game between the U. N. C. Freshmen and the High School teams which will be played Saturday at Cone Park.

The Freshman team has already defeated the University Seniors and the Freshmen are generally regarded as the class champions. Greensboro has the strongest and heaviest team in her history and as they have twice defeated the N. C. Freshmen the game will be the hardest fought of the season.

The Greensboro High School Athletic Association is just in receipt of a beautiful State Normal pennant given by the Athletic Association of the State Normal and Industrial College. The secretary of the association sent with the pennant congratulations for the splendid work of the High School team.

Former Supt. Swift yesterday sent Prof. A. H. King the following letter: Dear Mr. King:—I am going out of the city. Tell your team that I shall be back Saturday to see them play the Freshmen. I have no doubt but that our boys will live up to their reputation of playing a good clean game. They are boys against men but they can take care of men.

We are all coming out to see our boys play. I know that they will not disappoint us. We would like to win, but above all we want to see gentlemen play clean hard ball.

With regards to the team.

NEGRO MEETS SUDDEN DEATH

Sylvester Powell Buried in Cave in.

Was Working in Ditch Near Waterworks When Sides Collapsed—Walter Alexander Seriously Hurt—Other Workmen Escaped When the Earth Began to Loosen—The Ditch Was Something Like Ten Feet Deep At Point of Cave-in.

While engaged in removing piping from a ditch across the Battle Ground road near the waterworks yesterday afternoon Sylvester Powell, colored, met instant death in a cave-in and a fellow workman, Walter Alexander, also colored, barely escaped with his life. Alexander was carried to St. Leo's hospital and given the necessary treatment.

In company with other negroes Powell and Alexander were engaged in removing a line of pipe that had been placed across the road. The earth had been excavated to a depth of about ten feet half way across the road and the last piece of the piping was being removed from the ditch when the sides collapsed without warning, completely burying Powell and partly covering Alexander. Other workmen were in a less dangerous place and escaped injury.

The negroes were in the employ of the Dixie Concrete and Cement Company, of Charlotte, Mr. Brown in charge, which has the contract to erect the reservoir for the auxiliary plant of the Southern Power Company. The road is to be used as a side of the reservoir and the piping, placed to carry off excess water, was being removed in order to make the side waterproof. The plan was to remove the pipe from half the road and then refill the excavation so the public could pass while the piping was being removed from the remainder of the road. No braces were used in the ditch as it was not thought there would be any danger of a cave-in because of the short distance the ditch was cut.

As soon as it was seen that Powell had been buried alive his fellow workmen at once began removing the dirt in an effort to rescue him, but he was quite dead when his body was reached. It was several minutes before his body could be uncovered.

The pressure of the earth about Alexander's body caused several ribs to be broken and there is a possibility of internal injuries. It was something wonderful that he was not buried completely also.

Powell's remains were taken to his home, just beyond the city limits on Battle Ground road. Alexander lives just this side of the creek on the same road.

ABLE ADDRESS BY DR. TYREE

"The Heathen Lost Without The Gospel"

A Powerful Appeal to Christian People to Engage in Foreign Mission Work to the Extent of Their Ability—His Address Closed a Very Busy Day With the Foreign Missionary Workers.

Yesterday was a busy day with the Baptist women here attending the Divisional Conference on Missionary Methods, morning and afternoon sessions being crowded with interesting and helpful discussions.

The day's exercises wound up with a powerful appeal for foreign missions by Rev. Dr. W. C. Tyree, who has just resigned the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Raleigh after a lengthy term as pastor. Dr. Tyree advocated foreign missions on several grounds, among which were the teaching of the Bible that without the Gospel the heathen are lost, that the reflex influence of foreign missions is deeply beneficial to the spiritual life, that the churches owe their own existence to foreign missions.

Under the head of the reflex influence of foreign missions, Dr. Tyree said it took more unselfishness to go, give or pray in behalf of foreign missions than it did to perform any of the others of our Christian duties. In the case of the other duties we are stimulated by ties of one kind or another, but foreign missionary duties are purely unselfish. Selfishness is the root of all sin and foreign missionary activity tends to raise one above it. It requires faith, loyalty, obedience.

Dr. Tyree said that the foreign missionary enterprise was worth all its cost in time, money and lives just for the saints and the heroes it produced.

In developing his proposition that the churches in Christian countries grew from foreign missions, he said that when the Gospel was being preached in Palestine our forefathers were heathen idolaters in France, Germany and England. Foreign missions carried the Gospel to the uttermost parts of Palestine, then into Greece and into Rome, whence it was carried into England, France and Germany and eventually across the Atlantic to this country.

He argued strongly against the idea advanced by some that the heathen will not be lost. He said his only source of information and guidance was the Bible and nowhere in the Bible was it stated that the heathen would not be lost. On the contrary there were many passages which indicated that they are lost.

Morning Session.

The morning session opened with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. E. L. Middleton, of Cary. Then followed a very able address by Miss Fannie Heck, of Raleigh, on Tithing.

Mrs. W. N. Jones, of Raleigh, gave a most helpful address on Prayer in the Life of a Society.

Mrs. M. L. Kesler, of Thomasville, treated in an interesting manner the subject of The Society's Relation to the General Contribution of the Church. Miss Ammons, of the Thomasville Orphanage, made a talk on The Society's Relation to the Association, while Mrs. Charles Steeloff, of High Point, discussed Society Expansion. Then followed an informal discussion of Some Successful Associational Meetings. Miss Heck dismissed the meeting with prayer.

Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon session Mrs. J. Y. Killian presented some thoughts on the subject, How a Society Should Divide Its Funds. Mrs. Killian also discussed The Missionary Book Shelf.

Mrs. Freeman, of Raleigh, gave a talk on the Louisville Training School and in connection with this subject Mrs. Killian discussed the subject, Our School Girls. Mrs. G. F. Lumpkin, of Winston, made an address on The Society's Relation to the General Mission Life of the Church.

The afternoon exercises closed with prayer by Rev. J. T. Jenkins, of Lexington.

The program for today follows: Devotional Exercises—Mrs. Fred Jones. Mission Study Conference—Reasons and Results—Mrs. Killian. North Carolina and the General Union—Miss Briggs.

MR. LOVELACE AND MISS MATHEWS WED

Ceremony Performed At High Noon At Home of Bride's Parents on Church Street—Home Beautifully Decorated For the Occasion—Off on Bridal Trip To Northern Cities.

Yesterday at high noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Mathews, 127 Church street, Miss Carrie Mathews became the bride of Mr. Walter Lovelace, of Reidsville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Ware, presiding elder of the Greensboro district of the M. E. Church, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives of the couple.

The parlor, where the ceremony was performed, was artistically decorated with smilax, ferns and yellow chrysanthemums, the color scheme being yellow and green. The dining room was decorated with pink chrysanthemums and smilax, while in the gift room the motif was green and white, effected with white chrysanthemums and smilax.

Just before the ceremony Miss Kate Anderson, of Reidsville, sang and as the bridal party entered Mrs. Alf Galloway rendered Mendelssohn's Wedding march. First came Misses Amelia Sternberger and Edna Watt, each bearing ribbons of chrysanthemums. Then came the little ring bearer, Miss Mary Roach, the ring resting on a white chrysanthemum. She was followed by the groom and his best man, Mr. Lindsay Ellington, of Reidsville. The maid of honor, Miss Hallie Mathews, of New York, sister of the bride, entered, accompanied by the bride. The bride wore a traveling suit of brown material, with hat and gloves to match. Schubert's serenade was rendered softly as the vows were impressively spoken by the minister, the ring ceremony being used.

Following the ceremony a reception was held after which the bride and groom left at 4:30 for a trip to northern cities. On their return they will make their home in Reidsville.

The bride is a charming and attractive young lady and during her stay in this city she has made scores of friends who regret to give her up. The groom is an enterprising young business man of Reidsville, being connected with the Penn Tobacco Company. The large and handsome collection of gifts attest to the popularity of the couple.

Those here from out of the city for the wedding were Mrs. R. M. B. Ellington, Mrs. A. Wilkinson, Mrs. Eugene Watt, Miss Edna Watt, Mrs. Alf Galloway, Miss Kate Anderson, Misses Annie and Bessie Bennett, of Reidsville; Miss Futrell, of Winston; Miss Mary Pierce, of Pelham; Miss Claude Mathews, of Charlotte, and Miss Hallie Mathews, of New York.

THE MAJORITY ONE THOUSAND

Average Lead in County About This Figure.

Incomplete Returns Show That More Than Six Thousand Votes Were Cast For Register of Deeds—Six Precincts Yet To Be Heard From—Board of Canvassers Meet This Morning—Major Stedman's Majority Continues To Grow.

The majority polled by the Democrats over the Republicans in Guilford county will average fully 1,000 if not more. The returns are yet incomplete, there being six precincts yet to be heard from. The complete returns will show that more than six thousand votes were polled Tuesday, nearly as many as were polled two years ago.

Mr. W. H. Rankin will most likely lead the ticket in this county, with Sheriff Jones and Mr. McKinney closely following. In fact the returns indicate that there was but little scratching, excepting for the county commissioners. The present members of the board will probably run 150 behind the remainder of the ticket. Complete returns will show that Major Stedman made a splendid run, being led by only one or two of the county candidates.

The precincts yet to be heard from are South Rock Creek, South Madison, North and South Jefferson, Clay and South Monroe. The Congressional returns have been received from these precincts. The returns in show that South Madison, South Monroe, Sumner, Friendship, Jamestown and Deep River gave Republican majorities, this majority being slight except in Deep River and Jamestown.

The returns were uncommonly slow about coming in. Even High Point had not sent her returns into headquarters last night. Usually the returns from the entire county are in by noon on the day following the election. However, the county board of canvassers met this morning at 11 o'clock in the court house and the returns from every precinct in the county will be canvassed and the reports tabulated according to law. The board of canvassers is composed of a registrar or judge from each precinct.

In the Fifth District.

The reports yesterday morning from the counties in the Fifth district showed that Major Stedman's majority was even larger than it was at first thought. According to the latest reports received the majority is about as follows: Stedman—Alamance 340, Caswell 525, Durham 700, Guilford 1160, Granville 1,100, Orange 150, Person 200, Rockingham 650, Total 4825. Blair—Forsyth 350, Stokes 535, Surry 460. Total 1335. Stedman's majority 3490.

Many Congratulations.

Major Stedman was kept busy yesterday afternoon answering telegrams and letters of congratulation. Hundreds of his friends from all parts of the State, especially in the Cape Fear section, wired congratulations and as is usual with Major Stedman he took especial pains to return thanks to each one for their interest in his election.

Football This Afternoon.

This afternoon at Cone Park the eleven of the A. & M. College will meet the team from Kittrell College. This promises to be the best game by colored teams that will be seen this season in the city as the teams are about evenly matched. The visitors arrived last night and the members are hale fellows. Ladies will be admitted free. General admission 25 cents. The game begins promptly at 3:30 o'clock.

Funeral Yesterday.

The funeral of Garrett Charles, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Strobhar, was held yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from St. Benedict's Catholic church, Father Taylor conducting the service. The interment was in Green Hill cemetery.

Building Permit.

A permit was issued yesterday to Sam L. Allen for the erection of a residence on Julian street. The estimated cost is $1,200.

You can get a fine turkey dinner for 25 cents at the Chrysanthemum show today. Call and patronize the ladies and you will be more than repaid.

LIVING AT HIGH TENSION

To overdo in order to keep up with the parade is the tendency of the age. Living at such high tension, is it any wonder that our nerve sanitariums and rest cures are filled with nervous, overworked, broken-down men and women.

When one begins to get into this condition, there is only one cure—a complete rest, together with a wholesome diet and a good blood-making tonic and strength creator. There is nothing in this line that can possibly excel the medicinal elements of the cod's liver combined with tonic iron. This simple combination is found in Vinol. It contains no oil or grease and agrees with everyone.

A well known college professor states that he considers Vinol a truly wonderful tonic and strength creator. He was himself overworked and run-down to a critical point. A friend asked him to try Vinol. He did so, and is now enjoying perfect health, and its curative powers cannot be too strongly extolled.

We recommend Vinol to build up and strengthen the run-down and overworked, weak women, old people, delicate children and convalescents. In case anyone is not satisfied after taking one bottle, we always refund their money. This does not happen often, however, because Vinol's percentage of cures is very high. ## LIQUID CURES ECZEMA

WHERE SALVE FAILS

In regard to skin diseases medical authorities are now agreed on this:

Don't imprison the disease germs in your skin by the use of greasy salves, and thus encourage them to multiply. A true cure of all eczematous diseases can be brought about only by using the healing agents in the form of a liquid. WASH THE GERMS OUT. A simple wash: A compound of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, and other ingredients as combined in the D. D. D. Prescription, penetrates to the disease germs and destroys it, then soothes and heals the skin as nothing else has ever done.

A 25-cent trial bottle will start the cure, and give you instant relief.

SILENT AMERICAN HONESTY.

Would Other Men Have Taken the $4,000 Refused by Hill.

Chicago Inter Ocean.

There is in the Treasury of the United States something like $4,000, which, according to the books, belongs to David B. Hill, sometime Senator from New York, who died the other day. Mr. Hill never claimed the money—in fact, he refused it when it was tendered him.

And thereby hangs a tale illustrating how a man may be both honest and honorable in politics without making a noise about it all the time.

Mr. Hill was Governor of New York when elected to the Senate. The seat was vacant, there was no reason why he should not immediately qualify, and the disbursing officer of the Senate, according to custom and quite legally, began crediting Mr. Hill with his salary as Senator.

There happened, however, to be a rather peculiar political situation in New York just then, and Mr. Hill deemed it inexpedient, for his party's welfare and other reasons for him to cease being Governor, and actually beginning to be Senator right away. In fact, it was the better part of a year before Mr. Hill resigned the Governorship and took the oath as Senator.

Soon afterward the Senate official in charge of the matter informed Mr. Hill that there was over $4,000 to his credit any time he might have occasion to use it. Probably the Senate clerk, who did this expected to be regarded as the bearer of the pleasant news. But he was not.

Mr. Hill insisted that the money was not his, that he hadn't earned it, and he wouldn't take it. And he didn't take it. The money is still there, more than 13 years after Mr. Hill's service in the Senate ended.

Not Sorry for Blunder.

"If my friend hadn't blundered in thinking I was a doomed victim of consumption, I might not be alive now," writes D. T. Sanders, of Harrodsburg, Ky., "but for years they saw every attempt to cure a lung-racking cough fail. At last I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. The effect was wonderful. It soon stopped the cough and I am now in better health than I have had for years. This wonderful life-saver is an unrivaled remedy for coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhages, whooping cough or weak lungs. 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. ## WOULD QUIT BATHLESS HUSBY.

Woman Seeking Divorce Admits He Took One Six Months Ago.

Pittsburg, Nov. 8.—Because her husband had not taken a bath for six months, ran around with other women, threatened her with a knife and had attempted to force her to eat meat loaded with ground glass were the reasons given by Mrs. Ros McClarren in her suit for divorce against her husband, William J. McClarren, here today.

In spite of the uncleanly and untidy condition of McClarren, his wife says he was a great favorite with the class of young women who nightly frequent dances.

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. These cured me entirely of all my ailments. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains with annoying urinary irregularities. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my former troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Howard Gardner.

Time Will Tell.

The father of four boys, discovering the eldest, aged 13, smoking a cigarette, called the four together for a lecture on the evils of narcotics.

"Now Willie," he said in conclusion to his youngest, "are you going to use tobacco when you get to be a man?" "I don't know," replied the 6-year-old soberly. "I'm trying hard to quit." Success.

Dressed in "Black and Yellow."

Not "Football Colors" but the color of the cartoon containing Foley's Honey and Tar the best and safest remedy for all coughs and colds. Do not accept a substitute but see that you get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in a yellow carton with black letters. Howard Gardner.

"The successful man doesn't always have bouquets thrown at him," remarked the Wise Guy. "No, very often the road to success is full of mud."

A Household Medicine.

To be really valuable must show equally good results from each member of the family using it. Foley's Honey and Tar does just this. Whether for children or grown persons Foley's Honey and Tar is best and safest for all coughs and colds. Howard Gardner.

"Start out with high ambitions," says the Philosopher. "If you are a pickle you must expect to be jarred."

SHE TRAINS THE SOUL.

Mme. Rigue Says All Inmates of Insane Asylums Should Be Liberated.

New York Tribune.

Mme. Adele Marie Rigue, who was until recently head of the Circle of Universal Soul Freedom, is now the founder and teacher of the "University for Soul Education and Mental and Material Elevation." New York has all sorts of universities for the training of every variety of talent and learning, and why not one for the soul? asks Mme. Rigue.

"The doors of all insane asylums should be thrown open and the inmates turned loose," says Mme. Rigue. "More than 25 per cent of the people walking around the streets of New York are crazy, and it is unjust discriminating to deprive a few of their liberty while there are so many crazy people at large. This new development of the soul will cure the mentally afflicted. They are all one-ideaed. I have studied in hospitals, in asylums, and have delved and dug into every cult, and I now see that by the culture of the soul insanity can be definitely cured. In time it will be almost abolished."

"The soul is here," continued Mme. Rigue, tapping herself on the chest, "right here in a definite spot. I know it's here, because that's where the breath of life is, and when you cease to breathe the soul dies. Yes, the seat of the soul is in the lungs."

"Now, the way to teach these people to elevate their souls is to get them to understand the sixth sense—oh, yes, there is a sixth sense, without a doubt. It is located in a small gland of the brain, just in the centre of the forehead. From it reflects the intelligence of the brain."

Mme. Rigue is a believer, too, in the theory that every thought has a peculiar smell. She also believes in the idea of color applied to thought.

"Now, if you and I were talking in perfect harmony," she said, "and we would forget all about ourselves and think only of the sympathetic attitude in which we were discussing, there would be a distinct blue light surrounding us. But if a discord crept in a red spot would flash out."

"For instance, sometimes, when I get a letter, I read along, and there is a certain line—I see a yellow glow over that line. I don't like that; that's deception. Then when the person comes to see me I work indirectly along that line they have written, and when they come out and confess or explain, a blue light shines about them. All of that, now, is allied to the teaching of the university."

"I am convinced after all the cults and isms are threshed out that this development of the soul is the fundamental idea. By its application success can be attained. As I say, insanity can be cured, and the past tragedies of a life can be cured by telling the mind that these scars are not the only thing for the soul to look to."

Will Promote Beauty.

For the Church Debt

By ALICE McDONALD

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

"You will never get Edith," said Dave Spalding to his friend Luther Bennett, "and you may as well not try. You are rich and she is poor, but you're not the kind of a fellow she would fancy."

"You think so?"

"I know so."

"What will you give her for a wedding present if I do?"

"What will I give? It seems to me that's heads you win, tails I lose."

"What will you give if you don't?"

"I'll give a thousand dollars to any charity you name."

"In what time?"

"One year."

"Have you received any encouragement?"

"None whatever."

"Very well; I'll go you. How do you propose to win?"

"The basis of my operations will be money."

"She'll not marry for money."

"Not directly, but she may be induced to do so indirectly."

A few weeks later Bennett received a note from Miss Edith Cromwell stating that a fair was to be given to raise money for the church of which she was a member with a view to paying off the debt. She hoped he would attend and help the cause. Mr. Bennett replied that he would be on hand.

When the evening for the sale arrived he sauntered up to Miss Cromwell's booth, expended $10 in various articles he had no use for and left them to be sold again. Miss Cromwell was disappointed. She had expected to get at least double the amount from one she knew to be her admirer and rich.

"Is there nothing else you see that you want?"

"Nothing else? I haven't yet bought anything I want."

"Is there nothing I can procure for you?"

"Yes; I would like a photograph of your pretty face, but that, of course, is not for sale."

Miss Cromwell made no reply for awhile. She was thinking she might get a pretty sum for the church by yielding in the matter. Finally she said:

"Of course my likeness is not for sale, but I might give it to the church, and the church could sell it."

"Certainly."

"How much would it bring?"

"A thousand dollars."

Miss Cromwell caught her breath. There were two reasons for her doing so—viz, she was flattered that any man should value her photograph so highly, and she would be delighted to hand in a thousand dollars to the church. She turned the matter over rapidly in her mind. What difference would Bennett's possession of her likeness make? A man might buy a photograph of a fashionable beauty for a few cents. Those of actresses were for sale everywhere. The debt was $1,265. The $265 would undoubtedly be raised at this fair. The $1,000 she would get for her photograph would complete the amount required.

"What would you propose to do with my photograph?" she asked.

"We'll use it in the hunting case of my watch."

"Would any one except yourself see it?"

"One standing by when I looked for the time of day would be likely to see it."

Miss Cromwell thought again. "Will you do anything else with it?" she asked.

"No."

"I'll think it over. The fair lasts two evenings. Come tomorrow evening and I'll give you an answer."

Bennett went away assuming a careless air, though he was much interested in the proposed deal. He was desperately in love with the girl and would have paid a dozen church debts to get her. The next evening (late) he stopped at her booth. As soon as she saw him the color left her cheek. She was waiting on some one else at the time and as soon as she had finished opened a little box, took out a cabinet photograph and handed it to Bennett. He concealed a look of triumph as he drew forth a pocket check book, wrote a check for $1,000 and gave it to her. She folded it, placed it in the box from which she had taken the photograph and said:

"You can cut the head off if you like, and it will fit in your watch case."

"That's exactly what I propose to do." And he walked away, apparently as carelessly as if he had purchased a pin cushion.

The next day Luther Bennett while chatting with his friend Dave Spalding took out his watch to look at the time, and Spalding caught a glimpse of Miss Cromwell's head in the case.

"By Jove!" exclaimed Spalding.

"What's the matter?"

"You have won already."

"I don't claim to have won." And, pleading an engagement, Bennett hurried away.

Spalding went at once to Miss Cromwell, told her that he had seen her head in Bennett's watch case and asked her if Bennett had a right to wear it there.

Miss Cromwell was stunned. She admitted that he had, but she wouldn't explain. Since she was unwilling to have it known that she had sold her likeness even for the church she never explained. She sent for Bennett, who came and convinced her that there was but one way out of the matter—to marry him.

It's a long lane that has no turning.

What will the newspapers have to talk about now? Why, they can urge early Christmas shopping for one thing.

It is a question of who got the worst kicking, Teddy Roosevelt or Willie Hearst.

The smile that wouldn't come off lost its reputation when the President heard the election news.

The Colonel thought New York was afraid to go against his imperial will, but New York showed him.

Colonel Roosevelt can go 'way back and sit down. The New York electorate snubbed him good and hard.

There was some consolation for President Taft. In the midst of the gloom, like a rift in the clouds, came the news that his fine blooded cow, Pauline Wayne, had given birth to a 100-lb. calf.

The silent vote is what fooled the Republican politicians. And it was no reflection either on the prescience of those politicians. Democratic politicians have been similarly fooled.

Those disgruntled Democrats who predicted that in this State the Democrats would be keenly disappointed in the results of the election, that something was going to "drop," etc., etc., must be convinced now that it is difficult to essay the role of the prophet.

One of the most gratifying features of the whole election was the triumph of Woodrow Wilson. Dr. Wilson is a type of "the scholar in politics." Often the scholar has no place in politics for he is not a practical man. But Dr. Wilson is practical as well as scholarly and it is indeed a hopeful sign when men of his standing, learning and common sense are elevated to high position.

The Fusionists in Tennessee elected Capt. Hooper, a Republican, to the Governorship and an exchange calls this "a break in the Solid South." It is a break that can easily be mended. Tennessee is a Democratic State and but for Democratic votes which went to Capt. Hooper in pursuance of an agreement which could not in honor be violated, a Democrat would have been elected Governor.

Democrats seldom fail to do their duty at crucial times. Perhaps their greatest fault is staying at home when their candidates are practically sure of election.—Norfolk Landmark.

They were on their job Tuesday, yet, locally, there could be seen proof that they hadn't done all they could. Not a few good Democrats were found right here in Greensboro who had failed to meet the registration requirements. A recurrence of this situation should be carefully guarded against in the future.

The Telegram most sincerely congratulates Major Charles M. Stedman, the successful candidate for Congress, and his campaign manager, Mr. A. W. Cooke. Both did excellent and telling work, Major Stedman making a stirring canvas and Mr. Cooke filling with singular effectiveness the position of chairman of the district executive committee. "Congressman Stedman" is going to sound mighty good and all the more so because in honoring Major Stedman the district has honored the Confederate soldier.

The Telephone Voice.
Annie Payson Call, in Nerves and Common Sense.

Most men—and women—use more nervous force in speaking through the telephone than would be needed to keep them strong and healthy for years.

Nature knows no strain. True speech knows no strain. Therefore a strained, high-pitched voice does not carry over the telephone wire as well as a low one. Impatience, rudeness, indecision and diffidence blur communication by telephone even more than they do when one is face to face with the person talking. It is as if the wire itself resented these inhuman phases of humanity and spit back at the person who insulted it by trying to transmit over it such unintelligent bosh.

To a demanding woman, who is strained and tired herself, a wait of 10 seconds seems 10 minutes. I have heard such a woman ring the telephone bell almost without ceasing for 15 minutes. I could hear her strain and anger reflected in the ringing of the bell. When finally she "got her party" the strain in her high-pitched voice made it impossible for her to be clearly understood. Then she got angry again because "central" had not "given her a better connection" and finally came away from the telephone nearly in a state of nervous collapse, and insisted that the telephone would finally end her life. I do not think that she once suspected that the whole state of fatigue which had almost brought an illness upon her was absolutely and entirely her own fault.

FORMAL REOPENING
OF THE KENT HOMEInstitution Which Was Burned a Year Ago Re-built At Cost of $20,000.
Prepared for The Telegram.

It will be remembered that about a year ago Kent Home was burned down. Immediately after the fire efforts were put forth to rebuild. Insurance to the amount of $2,500 was collected but this was not thought sufficient to build a home as good as the one burned, the cost of material and labor being higher than it was when the home was first built. An appeal was made to the North Carolina Conference and to the friends of the institution in the North and in response to this appeal about $8,000 has been raised and pledges for more are still to be redeemed. The new Kent Home is about completed at a cost of $20,000. It was formally reopened on the evening of November 8.

Mrs. H. T. Dennis, of Detroit, Mich., the secretary of the bureau for the West Central States of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church, and her husband were present at the reopening. In giving a description of how the money to rebuild was raised Mrs. Dennis showed that for ever $5 raised by negroes in the South more than $100 was raised by the white people of the North.

At present the home has a superintendent, R. Temprance Robertson, an assistant superintendent, May L. Clark, and a teacher of sewing, Gertrude Clark. A teacher of domestic science will be added just as soon as the funds for the home are sufficient. This home is a model one and it is the intention of those who support it to have the girls who live there learn all that is necessary about housekeeping, cooking and sewing; and, in fact to know everything that is essential to making a home all that it ought to be.

Mr. Dennis said among other things that because the firm of Jeffries &amp; Foster was a little under all the other contractors in their bid, he was forced to give them the contract. Now he rejoiced in the fact that circumstances so ordered it. Notwithstanding that he had in the North built his own home and several houses besides he had never dealt with a set of men more reliable and faithful and conscientious in the carrying out of what they had contracted to do. He and Mrs. Dennis spent many days in examining the building and could find no fault in it. He challenged the audience of more than 200 to find anywhere the evidence that some one had shirked. It could be found nowhere. The fact that these contractors have done their work so well stands as a monument to the industrious negro. It will help the race to respect itself to know that they have men who can do such work. These contractors and the workmen associated with them have shown themselves to be men in every sense of the word.

The following telegram from Mrs. Anna Kent, of East Orange, N. J., for whom the Home was originally named, was read by S. A. Peeler, president of Bennett College:

Mrs. H. T. Dennis, care Hotel Guilford, Greensboro, N. C.

Congratulations for rebuilding Kent Home, also for conscientious work done by our friends whose people are to be benefited. May every young woman favored by admission to this home be strong for the right, earnest for truth, giving unselfish service whenever opportunity is found. Read forty sixth Psalm.

This is Thursday, the 10th day. Ten houses are to be sold at auction. Sale will start at 2 o'clock at first house, west of Morrison Bros. store on West Lee street. After this place is sold two 5-room cottages on Haywood street near Holiness church will be sold. Then 6 houses in Warnersville. Be on hand and get one. They will go cheap. S. S. Brown.

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF
MISSSES RIDGE AND VICKORY

Miss Margaret Halladay Entertains For Popular Young Brides-Elect.

Last week Miss Margaret Halladay issued invitations to a reception to be given in honor of Miss Etha Ridge, who is to marry Mr. C. Wistar Stockard next Wednesday, and great was the surprise when the guests arrived at the Halladay home to be met at the front door by Mrs. G. H. Miles and Mrs. Elmore Sellars and presented with a big yellow chrysanthemum with little double hearts bearing the name of Miss Allie E. Vickory and Mr. Eugene McNairy and date Dec. 7, 1910.

The guests then were ushered into the front parlor where the receiving line stood under a beautiful big white arch from which was suspended a wedding bell the back ground being of ferns. The mantel was banked with white chrysanthemums and ferns.

In the receiving line were Misses Margaret Halladay, Allie Vickory, Etha Ridge, Mary Patterson, Mrs. D. E. Maxwell, Mrs. Chas. Alderman, Mrs. John Kleemeier, Mrs. W. J. Halladay.

The brides-elect in the receiving line adding much to the beauty—with their wedding gowns.

The guests were then ushered into the dining room where Mrs. T. L. Parsons received them at the door. This room was a scene of beauty. In the center stood a round table on which was a handsome centerpiece of real Mexican drawn work. In the center of this was a big cut glass vase in which were white chrysanthemums and ferns. Over all hung a shower bouquet of button chrysanthemums. Extending from the chandelier to the table were streamers of white tulle.

In this room Mrs. Irving Smith served ice cream from a big punch bowl and cake and mints were served by Misses Bettie Aiken Land and Frieda Stern.

Mrs. Fred Sparger then invited the guests into a little alcove in the reception hall where Miss Mabel Ridge presided over the "Brides' Books." The guests then were ushered into the Japanese tea room. Here Misses Bonnie Bishop and Bessie Grissom poured tea and Miss Alice Callum and Mrs. Dale Starbuck served sandwiches and tea. In this room Japanese lanterns were hung from the four corners of the room, yellow chrysanthemums and ferns were banked on the mantel and a big vase of yellow chrysanthemums in a mound of yellow chrysanthemums stood in the center of the table. Misses Lucy Blake and Lillian Merrimon received the cards.

Seventy-five guests called during the afternoon and voted Miss Halladay's reception one of the nicest of the season.

GREENSBORO, N. C.Is This a Good Time to Buy Property?

We are often asked this question. Is this a good time to buy property. Or, is this a good time to sell property. Our reply invariably is this: The time to buy is when the other fellow wants to sell, or, the time to sell is when the other wants to buy.

On Thursday of this week the other fellow wants to sell; in fact has to sell for a division. So we unhesitatingly say—this is the time to buy—and too, this is a particularly good time to buy, as business is improving in all lines, and real estate will surely be higher and in greater demand.

Attend the auction sale of the "Crutchfield property" Thursday, Nov. 10, 2 p. m. and buy one or more of the houses and lots and our word for it, you will make money on it.

MR. JOYNER ON THE ELECTION

Well Known Correspondent Discusses Men and Measures In Connection With the Political Developments of Tuesday—A Tribute to Major Stedman.

(By Andrew Joyner.)

Nobody, to my knowledge, and I have some, in political spheres, can even compare with Major Stedman in sunny serenity in sunshine or storm. I have known many men in public life, county state and nation. I see more men hurt by success in county, township, state or national politics, than were eventually helped, personally or financially.

But I never have seen a man like Maj. Stedman, who was always, in private as in public, in victory as in defeat, buoyant and refreshing, invigorating and uplifting. That's him today. Finer, truer, Democrat never breathed, and aside from personal gratification over his splendid victory yesterday, there is a feeling here, that he will truly represent the true old time Democracy of special privilege to none in national affairs.

The "Imperial Fifth" of North Carolina, will look with pride upon its distinguished representative in Washington, after Mr. Morehead has to get out.

A very big Republican this morning in speaking of the vote yesterday asked me to ask the other Republicans in the State if they thought the party had gained anything by slapping in the face such old timers as Pritchard, Rollins, Duncan, Adams, Dockery, Douglas, Lusk and Starbuck, and tying on to a set of fresh Democrats like Morehead, McNinch, Blair, Cooley, Parker, Mears, King, Brewer, and others of like ilk in the various counties and districts of the State.

I'm making that "asking" now but I am not expecting any answer from anybody. Even the versatile Mr. Tom Settle, who had a good permanent federal job before he espoused Butler and Butlerism, will hardly reply.

This Republican also asked if the Republican party gained forty thousand votes in North Carolina under Duncan and Adams campaign management, and lost forty thousand under Butler and Morehead's management, how long would it take for the party under Butler and Morehead to become respectable. I couldn't answer him honestly, and he laughingly cited me to the problem of the frog in the well which Governor Vance related forty years ago and which some really prominent speakers this year have tried to pass off as original.

Speaking of jokes reminds me of a fine "getting off" by Deputy Collector Starbuck this morning. Mr. Starbuck is one of those old dyed in the wool radicals. He is worse than a Republican, but all the same is a "good fellow" and everybody, it was thought liked him. But this campaign Republican headquarters tabooed him because he would not enthrone for Butler. Placards were sent out over the county by Republicans telling lies on him, and several rural mail route carriers helped to spread it by word of mouth.

Of course he didn't have manhood enough in a sense to vote the Democratic ticket Tuesday, but plumped in a radical ticket from top to bottom.

This morning he wasn't looking bad or crestfallen at all. Smiling just exactly like Major Stedman, who was also in the war. But Starbuck told a story, and it seemed to veer towards Mary Ann and Motley, but he never said a word about them. He said he had just been reading a very amusing letter which Artemus Ward wrote his sister, while he was in England. Artemus wrote that he had had a very unfortunate experience. He said he was giving his entertainment to the crowned heads of Europe and had finally landed in England, and the Prince of Wales had not only signed for him, but was coming to his show. He said it consisted of a monkey, a dancing girl, a bear and a hand organ played by an American Jew. Sad to relate, Artemus said that while the Prince was approaching, and within only twenty feet of the crowded tent, the hand organ music stopped, and it was discovered that the fool Jew had dropped dead. He added that he never felt so mortified in his life.

All his friends are complimenting Mr. Gordonia McKinney (dear old Mack they call him) just reelected county treasurer for his fine political acumen.

JEWELERS.

WHEN YOU THINK OF WATCH and jewelry repairing think of W. L. Pegg, 337 South Elm street. Pegg will save you money.

The day after the nomination of Major Stedman for Congress, after the longest and hottest convention contest in the history of the State, "Mack," who never surrendered except at Appomattox, wrote the vote of each county in the district, and this correspondent held a copy for curiosity. The official returns show that he missed the district majority for Stedman only two hundred votes and every county majority forecast, even to Forsyth for Blair, proved within a few votes of being correct. Others insisted that his "1,200 for Guilford" was badly off, but the result shows that he properly sized up the fact, that people would not over exert themselves to vote when the majority was assured.

I haven't messed around Republican State headquarters here this campaign any, because I preferred getting political news where there would be no obligation of personal favor. And the novice, there never saw the point while wondering, and sometimes cursing about him I "found out things."

All my campaign "stories" of Republican official doings, were correct, to such an extent, that even Butler, who honored Tom Pence by his vile tongue, could find no point of vantage against this correspondent, perhaps because he knew that Judge Bynum spoke a parable to Gov. Aycock on one occasion when he said, "You better not fool with Joyner for he never shoots his biggest load first, and if you let him alone he won't shoot twice."

Congressman State Chairman Motley Morehead and Private Secretary State Republican Secretary and Campaign Manager Gilliam Grissom, both of Spray, went there and voted yesterday, and returned to Greensboro last night to be at "headquarters" to get the election returns. "Things" gave out by nine o'clock, the lights even gave out, and Chairman Sherrill's little old County Democratic headquarters had to serve for State Republican news for those Republicans who had not been put abed on account of Butler or other impediments to good morals.

This morning Republican State headquarters, Congressional headquarters, County headquarters, presided over respectively by Congressman Morehead, Private Secretary Grissom for the State, Judge Bynum, Ben Sharpe and Smoking John Schultz of Salem, for the district, Hyram Worth and Dude Sellers for the county, were silent and deserted. All the doors connecting the long suit of seven rooms were wide open. Expensive office furniture and intensive office workers were absent, Chairman Morehead, Secretary Grissom, Chairman Bynum, Chairman Worth and even Manager Ben Sharpe and Lieut. Schultz were gone. Only trash remained, excusing the presence of Mr. Dude Sellers and Chief Deputy Marshal Bailey, and Federal Clerk Jim Millikan. Of course, under these circumstances, it was impossible to get the desired interview with Mr. Morehead or Mr. Grissom on their views as to the lesson of the election. I wanted to know whether they thought it meant a rebuke of Butler, Boozie, Boodle or Bonds, or an approval of "pokeberry News and Observer juice," but I couldn't find them. They might have been out looking for me. If so, we failed to connect. But Mr. Dude Sellers, who was present like a Roman Sentinel faithfully keeping guard over the ruins of former magnificence, chuckled with glee, out of a mouth of mourning. "Well, you can't say that Butler was buried any deeper in North Carolina than Roosevelt was buried in the United States." Now wasn't that a fine comparison, and wasn't campaign headquarters Stenographer Will Millner correct when he said "Sellers, your mouth is too wide."

David H. Blair, the fine young Winston near-Democrat who ran against Major Stedman for Congress, was here today. He went to see the white haired veteran and warmly congratulated him on his success, and thanked him for having waged a perfectly honorable political fight. Mr. Blair went further and said that while he appreciated more than he could express the confidence of his home people of Forsyth by giving him an exceptional vote and majority, yet he also felt grateful to the entire Democratic press for the respectful way he had been handled by all in this bitter campaign of personalities. "Of course you know I was badly handicapped from the start," he said, "and it got worse all the time." It certainly did, but none of us blamed "Dave" for it. Just knew he didn't know any better when he began fooling with Republican federal pie.

Odd Prices for Shoes

"You certainly have funny prices on your shoes," said one of our customers the other day when we showed him a pair of our old-fashioned plain toe calf skimp shoes marked to sell at $3.25. Some of our footwear is sold at prices just a little uncommon—that's a fact, but in every instance a careful comparison will show that the prices are uncommonly low. That three-twenty-five calf skin shoe, for instance, is not sold anywhere else at less than three-fifty, and many stores get four dollars for the same grade. When you find that our 90-cent, $1.10 and $1.35 children's shoes are quite generally sold for $1, $1.25 and $1.50 elsewhere, you come to like and appreciate our odd way of pricing them. $2.10 for best quality men's home-made wholestock shoes is a funny price, but you know, if you have taken the trouble to look around, that they are quite generally sold at $2.25 or more by other stores.

Every year we sell hundreds of pairs of men's and women's shoes at $2.25—another rather unusual price, and the men and women who buy and wear these $2.25 shoes will testify that they are just as good and look just as nice as the average $2.50 shoes sold in "exclusive" shoe stores.

Many ladies in this city who wear our Sherwood and La France shoes, sold at $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00 will testify to their excellent fitting and wearing qualities and our men's $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00 shoes are constantly growing in popularity.

You can find a good many lines of goods here that are somewhat neglected by other city stores these days; for instance, wool jeans and other woollen piece goods for suits and pants; goods for work shirts and dress shirts, knitting wool and knitting cotton, cotton batting for comforts, wool and cotton flannels, floor oil cloth, table oil cloth, etc. On our second floor, in addition to carpets, rugs, matting, window shades and lace curtains, we carry a big stock of blankets and comforts of many grades and kinds; also a nice line of trunks. Drop in and see how busy we are. Our friends tell us this is one of the best lighted and most comfortable stores in the city now.

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Cantharides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Keweenaw's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

THIS FARMER GOT A LESSON

A Good Road and a Motorcar Saved His Baby.

Frank Weldon in Uncle Remus' Magazine. One of the bitterest opponents of road improvement in Screven county, Georgia, was an old farmer who lived 14 miles from the courthouse. However, despite his protest, the road was improved out his way, but he grumbled and accused the officials of spending money to build roads for the rich owners of automobiles which really ought not to be allowed on the public roads at all.

One day the last summer this farmer's youngest child was stricken ill very suddenly. She suffered intense pain and the usual home remedies afforded no relief. Dr. Overstreet was in his office at Sylvania when he received the telephone call from the father to hurry. As the Doctor stepped out on the street he saw L. H. Hilton, a bank president, standing a few feet away. Explaining the case in a few words, the Doctor asked Mr. Hilton to take him out in his car.

"Jump in!" said Hilton.

Forty minutes later they were at the farmer's house. The child's life was saved and the father became a convert to good roads and automobiles right then and there.

The life of a man whose arm was crushed in a gin last year was saved by the doctors being rushed to him in Mr. Hilton's car. The doctors said the man would have bled to death if they had driven out to the place in buggies.

Saves an Iowa Man's Life.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. For, after eight months of frightful suffering from liver trouble and yellow jaundice, getting no help from other remedies or doctors, five bottles of this matchless medicine completely cured him. Its positively guaranteed for Stomach, Liver or Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Only 50 c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Dug From Herculaneum.

"Do you think," said Jones, "I should send my daughter away to complete her musical education?"

"By all means!" enthusiastically exclaimed Smith, who lives in the flat upstairs.

Above all other things is justice; success is a good thing; wealth is good also; honor is better; but justice exceeds them all.

Hopi Courtship.

When a Hopi maiden decides which of the eligible young men of the tribe she wishes to marry she goes and sits in his house and grinds corn until he is sufficiently impressed by her industry to marry her. After the ceremony, which is an elaborate one, the couple go to live in the wife's house. If she tires of her husband she can obtain a divorce by merely throwing his saddle out of the house. After marriage the house, fields and all their property except the herds belong to the wife. The Hopis are indulgent parents. The right of the children to do as they please is never questioned.

Odd Way to Rest.

Fresh Air in Winter

In winter, it is hard to get fresh air in certain rooms. Some rooms in a house are usually colder than others, and if you open the windows it is hard again to heat the room properly.

If you keep the windows closed you don't get fresh air; if you keep them open you cannot quickly reheat the room. The

SMOKELESS
OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless solves the difficulty. You can leave the windows in a room open all day in winter, and when you close them apply a match to a Perfection Oil Heater and heat the room to any temperature you desire in a few minutes.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It burns for nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. It has an automatic flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be quickly cleaned. An indicator always shows amount of oil in the font.

The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down. It is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection Oil Heater is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

A DEED OF DARING.

Twenty-seven Lives Saved by One Man in a Shipwreck.

A historic case of daring and endurance rarely equaled in life saving annals was that of the rescue of twenty-seven souls by one man in 1887. The fishing schooner Sea Clipper was driven by the tempest against a reef near the Spotted Islands on that coast and speedily went to pieces. Captain William Jackman, in charge of a fishing crew at these islands, had wandered in a direction he had never been before as if by inspiration and suddenly saw the whole tragedy enacted before his eyes. Hurrying his one companion back to the fishing station to summon help, he plunged into the howling swirl himself and eleven times swam to the ship. Each time he took back a human being to safety, battling splendidly against wind and tide.

Then help arrived, but no means was available of communicating with the vessel, so Jackman fastened a rope around his waist and made fifteen more trips, returning with a castaway on each occasion. It was then discovered that a woman had been overlooked and left on board, and the belief was expressed that she was dead, but he declared that he would not leave her there, living or dead. Accordingly he plunged into the surf again and soon bore the hapless creature to the shore, where, divesting himself of his flannels, he wrapped her round her, as she was almost at death's door. She expired a few hours later, but lived long enough to thank her preserver for his noble efforts in her behalf. Wide World Magazine.

Couldn't Trap Him.

A mother of four daughters, one of whom had recently married, cornered an eligible young man in the drawing room. "And which of my girls do you most admire, might I ask?" "The married one," was the reply. Judge.

HOBBLE SKIRT GETS INTO COURT

Attorney Tells Jury Not to Be Influenced by Silk Stockings.

Pittsburg, Nov. 8.—Isabella K. Lippert, charged with false pretenses in selling an interest in her "Paris beauty shop," appeared in the Criminal Court today in a hobble skirt and wearing a great, plumed picture hat. When she tried to ascend the witness stand, which is several inches above the courtroom floor, she made so many failures on account of the skirt that one of the attaches had almost to lift her on it.

In his address Assistant District Attorney Mohard asked the jurors not to be influenced by the presence of the hobble skirt, nor by the elaborately plumed hat, nor by her silk stockings, nor by the aroma of the sweet perfume being wafted from the clothing of the defendant, but to close their eyes and nostrils and decide according to the facts.

This jury did and returned a verdict finding the "beauty doctor" guilty as indicted. She will be sentenced November 19.

Fortune Telling

Does not take into consideration the one essential to woman's happiness—womanly health. The woman who neglects her health is neglecting the very foundation of all good fortune. For without health love loses its lustre and gold is but dross. Womanly health when lost or impaired may generally be regained by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

This Prescription has, for over 40 years, been curing delicate, weak, pain-wracked women, by the hundreds of thousands and this too in the privacy of their homes without their having to submit to indelicate questionings and offensively repugnant examinations.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter free. All correspondence held as sacredly confidential. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. ### SUNDAY HOME.

Baltimore Sun.

There is no home like Sunday home.

No sweeter place to be,

With rest for weary hearts that roam,

With song and cheer and glee.

Good-by to care and toll one day.

Sing-ho for sweethearts and for play.

For babbling child and cozy nook,

With pipe and paper and with book.

There is no sweeter home, sweet home,

Than Sunday home, the fair;

Dear little arms to clasp and cling,

And hands to muss your hair.

Farewell old world of dark and light,

Good-by to battle and to plight;

When Sunday home looms o'er the hill,

Our hearts rush on, they can't be still.

There is no home like Sunday home,

No place on earth so good

To gather from the spiritual life

Its holy wine and food.

Sweet home of Sunday, where we find

Rest for the body and the mind,

Cheer for the spirit and the heart

Where sunbeam children round us dart.

No White Prisoners In Jail.

Jailor Apple was wearing a smile of contentment yesterday. And he was charging the Democratic victory with bringing about this State of affairs. When asked what the trouble was he replied: "Why the Democrats won out in Rockingham yesterday and they at once sent down here and carried every white prisoner I had back to Rockingham." This is court week in Rockingham and the prisoners were carried back to stand trial. There were eight prisoners in the lot, three being white. There are only ten prisoners in jail at present.

NEW BRIDGE FOR NORTH BUFFALO

Substantial Steel Structure Will Be Placed Across Stream Just Below White Oak—The Contract Let Yesterday by Commissioners—Several Road Matters Considered—Jurors Drawn.

The County Commissioners met in adjourned session yesterday for the purpose of concluding the regular work for the month, having gone home on Tuesday to participate in the election. While a number of people were anxious about the vote throughout the state and nation the board was busy considering road matters and attending to other business that came up.

The board yesterday afternoon decided to erect a substantial steel bridge across North Buffalo creek at the point where Summit avenue, extended, crosses the stream. The bridge will be about 70 feet long and will rest on brick, cement or stone abutments. The cost of the structure will be about $1,500. The contract was awarded to the Oswego Bridge Co., of Oswego, N. Y., and the bridge is to be in place in a few weeks.

Charles R. Hendrix, of Pentris township, and Will Kanoy, of High Point township, were exempted from poll tax on account of physical disability.
